Mr. Hatt will be consoled by a baronetey for his suppression as Vice-President of the Board of trade. He is a man without enemies, a staunch Whig, and by marriage a connection of the Premier. Whan on the Treasury Banch he was ineffective, and his Gatcahead speech in July last regarding his mission to Vienna was felt to be an egrogious mistake, no much so that, on resumption of negotiations for the commercial treaty in September, his colleagues were sont forth without him to convert the unbelievers of the Danube to free trade. How little way they have made is no secret. One of them, Mr. Morier, bas come Back to tre if it be possible to por unde Mr. Gladstone to take a stop towards the reduction of the tobrese duties. This is one of the few things we have left to give up. The Apstrians do not ask any peculiar benefit for their produce. for such a requirement they know would be in vain. All they demand, in consideration for alterations in their tariff favourable th our bestile and hardwave products, is the lowering of our excessive tax on numanufactured tobadeo. They may, and I believe truly, that Hangary is eapable of grawing a vast amount of tobacco of the finest quality. The yearly increasing demand of this country is so great that there can be little question of the recuperative power of this branch of the revenue, were the same principles applied to it that have been successfully adonta most serious offence for a witness by his absence | ed in so many others. It is also believed at Vibastled wine would give the Hungarians a cheaus of competing with their French and Spunish vivals; but on this noint I own pryself much more sceptical. One thing is pertain, that, unless our Government can do something better than preach, they will make few provelytes among the advisors of the Emperor Francis Jeseph. Divergence of view We day anyone to point out in Governor Eyre's despatch one single line of cridence to show that he was engaged in a struggle with rebellion, and this being so the authorities of Jamaica have positively no defence for the execution of Gordon and the wild slaughter of their prisoners .-

The negro insurrection in Jamuica has been suppressed by a vigour of action and a moderation in the use of victory deserving all possible praise. The colonial authorities, olthough they had a right to expect assistance from the Imperial department at home, encountered their danger with promptitude and spirit, hommed in the conflagration, aut off the incendiary sources, and white population and to make victims of the whice women, the children baing shoughtered out of the way as a matter of course, -Herold.
